

The Buck Stops with Scout

Payment solutions that make the process straightforward for everyone involved.

We do it all.

Reimbursements – Refunding participants for out-of-pocket expenses incurred during trial participation, such as travel or parking costs.

Payments – Compensation provided for time and effort spent on trial activities, acknowledging the participant's valuable contribution.

Stipends – Pre-determined allowances paid to participants to support their engagement in the study.

We also provide solutions to help mitigate the US tax burden for participant payments that meet a taxable threshold.

Let Scout handle the details. The buck stops here.

Pay 'em their way.

Bank Transfer: Funds sent directly to the recipient's bank account in local currency.

Check: Payments issued in USD, widely accepted in the US and Canada.

PayPal: Funds sent to the recipient's PayPal account using their email address.

Venmo: Funds sent to the recipient's Venmo account using their email or phone number.

Reloadable ScoutPass: Funds can be reloaded multiple times and are active for 3 years.

Onsite Reloadable ScoutPass: Same as the reloadable ScoutPass, distributed at the site. Available in the US.

Single Load Virtual Card: Preloaded funds for one-time use, active for 6 or 12 months.
